

Daily Herald

dh dailyherald.com

PAGE 2 SECTION 5 DAILY HERALD

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 16, 2009

Your news

SuperSibs plans annual May luncheon fundraiser

SuperSibs, a national non-profit organization supporting children whose brothers and sisters have cancer, announced its third annual signature event, A Tribute to Our Quiet Heroes.

The Quiet Hero mom spa, lunch and silent auction will be from 10:30 a.m.-2 p.m. Saturday, May 8, at the Westin O'Hare in Rosemont.

A Tribute to Our Quiet

Heroes is an afternoon of gratitude and inspiration. Quiet Hero moms, their special guests and SuperSibs supporters are welcome to this event that includes silent and live auctions, reception, luncheon and speakers.

For information, visit supersibs.org.

• Send Your news to nbrcalendar@dailyherald.com

COURTESY SUPERSIBS

A Tribute to Our Quiet Heroes 2010 planning committee are, from left: Kerri Heilman, Geneva; Sharon Cuttone, special event consultant, Arlington Heights; Joanne Vrablik, co-chairman, Inverness; Beth Grabowski, co-chairman, Arlington Heights; Lora Berger, Fox River Grove; and, not pictured: Kathy Grube, Nora Kalve, Sharon Ehrens, Stacey Empson, Ginny Boss and Kelly Corrigan.